UFC signs deal for new head office building

MUSCAT — Jamal Said al Qiali, Chairman of United Finance Company (UFC) and Haidam bin Ahmed al Jamali, Chairman of Nader Trading Company, concluded an agreement for the construction of a new head office building for UFC at Wadiyuh, at a signing ceremony held at UFC's corporate office yesterday. The building is yet another milestone in the growth of UFC. It will have a separate retail outlet to offer better services to the customers.

Set up in 1997, United Finance Company has earned a reputation for its personalised service, quick approval processes, easy documentation, and competitive rates, as well as a willingness and ability to constantly innovate for customers. A recipient of the Oman Award for Excellence in the category of the Investment Projects, UFC has been adjudged a leading finance company in Oman.

With this new head office, United Finance Company expects to offer an even better service to its customers and residents of Sultanate. The company is indebted to the Central Bank of Oman for their guidance and support with out which these milestones could not have been reached," UFC said in a statement.
